

Periodic Table of Helen: with notes on manoeuvring (key/s provided)

Notes: 1) Events with ages in [brackets] cannot be verified and in no way provide an accurate timeline. 2) Different sources list varying descriptions, ages, lessons and locations for events. These differences arise from sporadic accounts, incomplete public records, and conflicting opinions of those involved. Every effort has been made to list the most stable elemental information via recorded testimony as provided by the Commonwealth of _____, article 22.v.6#. 3) American spelling rules have been followed. A European version is slated for the future pending further funding/budget approval. 4) Read at any level; from any direction.
